Redistricting Workshop
November 16, 2021 4:30 pm

Port of Skamania County Board of Commissioners

The Port of Skamania Board of Commissioners will discuss potential Port district boundary adjustment at this hearing. This process, known as redistricting, happens every 10 years for Congressional, legislative, municipal, and special-purpose districts in Washington state. Where: Port Office at 212 SW Cascade Avenue Stevenson, Washington 98648 and via zoom

Workshop starts at 4:30 p.m. on November 16, 2021.

You may attend in person at the Port Board Room, located at 212 SW Cascade Avenue, Stevenson Washington or you may attend via Zoom at

During the meeting, Port staff will share changes in the district population that may require boundary adjustments to rebalance the population for elected representation. If the Commission deems the boundary adjustments are necessary, the Port will publish a redistricting plan by November 17th for the Commission to discuss during the November 22nd Hearing.

Public comments are encouraged at public meetings and can also be submitted via email at pat@portofskamania.org

About redistricting

Every 10 years following the U.S. Census, municipalities and special-purpose districts in Washington state are required to review their voting districts to help ensure fair and equitable elected representation. Populations growth and shifts within the Ports, three commissioner districts means that population in some districts has changed and boundaries may need to be shifted to the rebalance population for elected representation.

Port Commission meetings are open, and the public is encouraged to attend.
